Top - The Cork team who played Waterford in the semi-final of the Munster Camogie Championship at the Cork Athletic Grounds last night, and below the Waterford team.

Cork, 7-5; Waterford, 2-1.

The score sheet at the conclusion of last night's opening game of the Munster Camogie Championships at the Cork Athletic Grounds readily indicate how Cork's skill and experience told so heavily in their favour against Waterford.

Cork's side, most of whose members were on the victorious team against the Combined Universities, again blended very impressively in all sectors, while the forwards really knew the most effective route to the opposing goal.

Yet, what the score sheet tends to hide is that this Waterford side shaped much better than the margin suggests, especially for a time in the first half when they managed to get on level terms with their far more experienced opponents. Lack of experience, in fact, is probably the big drawback at the moment of this Waterford team, for some of the players were together for the first time last night, and the team are only competing in these championships for the second year.

The side, however, had some fine individual players, chiefly J. McNamara in the back line, G. Power at midfield and N. McCarthy and E. Browne in the attack. These provided the main strength of their side in their own sectors, but it would have taken highly organised teamwork to have any prospect of matching strides with this Cork combination, which looks really strong in all departments.

The defence had a comparatively quiet evening, and the midfield work was mainly devoted to backing up the attack. Here Misses A. Crotty, N. Duggan and M. Joyce were a formidable scoring trio that gave the Waterford defence little respite, where Miss Mooney did a lot of fine work in goal, despite the margin recorded against her side.

Scorers for Cork were A. Crotty (3-0), N. Duggan (2-5), N. Deane and M. Joyce (1-0 each), and for Waterford, A. Browne and T. O'Meara (1-0 each) and N. McGrath (0-1). The half-time score was 5-2 to 2-1.

Cork - Misses E. O'Donovan, B. Lucey, B. Walsh, J. Clancy, N. Murphy, P. J. O'Grady, M. Hayes, L. Coughlan (captain), A. Crotty, N. Duggan, M. Joyce, N. Deane.

ST. ALOYSIUS BEST IN JUNIOR CAMOGIE FINAL

St. John's, Carrigaline, 0-4;
St. Aloysius 4-1

Despite a gale-force wind, which favoured each side in turn, the Junior City Division camogie final between St. Aloysius, Cork, and St. John's, Carrigaline, at Carrigaline yesterday proved an exciting affair. The exchanges were lively throughout, particularly in the first half, when only a point separated the sides. With the advantage of the breeze in the second half St. Aloysius scored quickly and from then on the Carrigaline girls were never in it with a chance.

The winners were a very well balanced side with backs and forwards both playing well. In contrast the losers had a fine defence in which T. O'Regan and T. O'Sullivan started but their forwards missed several fine chances in the first half when they should have turned over with a better lead.

D. Sisk had scored a point for Carrigaline in the first half—their only score of the game. Almost immediately after the re-start L. O'Grady first-timed a goal from far out for the city girls and five minutes later D. Langford cleverly crossed for R. Manley to score a grand goal. Then Miss Manley scored another and as time fourth goal and added a point. She put D. Langford notched their

A POINT scored in the closing minutes by Eithne Leach, the Dublin schools captain, gave her side victory over Cork at Harold's Cross yesterday. The final score of 0-2 to 0-1 reflected the closeness of the encounter. Neither side registered a score in the first half. Eithne Hussey gave the winners the lead shortly after the restart, which was neutralised by a similar score for Cork by R. Manley. The Cork girls held the initiative in the closing quarter but were foiled by the timely clearances of Dervill Dwyer.

The winning point by Miss Leach came somewhat against the run of

OLD ALOYSIANS TAKE JUNIOR CAMOGIE TITLE

Old Aloysians—5-1;
Mourne Abbey—3-1

In appalling conditions, Old Aloysians won the Cork Junior Camogie Championship by defeating Mourne Abbey by 5 goals 1 point to 3 goals 1 point.

One of the features of Old Aloysians' win was the display of their goalkeeper, M. Moran, who brought off many fine saves. Other outstanding players for the winners were Misses C. O'Connell, P. Joyce and D. Langford.

Mourne Abbey had not the team work of their opponents but had very fine players in Misses K. Cronin, P. McCarthy and C. Mullane.

Scorers for the winners were: R. Manly (2-0); E. Wyley (2-0); and L. O'Grady (1-1); and for Mourne Abbey: J. Hanlon (1-0); H. Mulhane (1-0); C. Mullane (1-0); and P. McCarthy (0-1).

Miss S. O'Sullivan, chairman of the Cork County Board, presented the trophy to Miss L. O'Grady, captain of Old Aloysians.

SCHOOLS' LEAGUE

Once again St. Aloysius "A" face North Pres. this time in the league. This will be the third meeting of these teams this year, and both will be anxious to gain the valuable league points. Last Saturday St. Aloysius turned the tables on the previous match, by defeating their opponents by two goals. St. Aloysius should be well served by M. Mourne (goal), M. Clancy, C. O'Connell and R. Manley who gave such a good account of themselves when they lined out last Saturday. These players also should be good for Junior Old Aloysians when they defeated South Pres. P.P. last Sunday at Church Road. North Pres. who have been progressing very well lately, will go all out to avenge last Saturday's defeat. Whatever the outcome of the match, it should prove of much spectator interest.

OLD ALOYSIANS FOR JUNIOR LEAGUE FINAL

Old Ais., 4 goals 1 point; South Pres.
P.P., 3 goals.
St. Finbarrs, 3 goals 1 point;
St. Johns, nil.

At Church Road yesterday, Old Aloysians advanced to the final of the 1956 Junior League after a well-earned victory over South Pres. With many schools players on both selections, this match was very exciting, with brisk exchanges of skill on both sides.

Old Aloysians, playing with the breeze, were 2 goals 1 point up at half-time. On the resumption, South Pres. put on heavy pressure, and, despite the efforts of C. Joyce and M. Mourne, scored two goals in ten minutes. Old Aloysians rallied and Rena Manley scored another goal, which ended the scoring and clinched the issue for Old Aloysians.

Best for South Pres were K. R. Murphy, J. Kelly and N. Finn, and for Old Aloysians C. O'Connell, M. Clancy, B. Hegarty, and R. Manley.

At the same venue in the Junior League, 1956, St. Finbarrs had a well-earned victory over St. Johns. St. Finbarrs played hard for the full duration of the match. M. Barry, A. O'Connor and F. Hallinan were outstanding. St. Johns were unlucky to lose M. Crowley through injury in the second half, but she was capably replaced by D. Sisk.

On Saturday at Church Road, St. Aloysius "A" had a hard-earned victory over their rivals, North Presentation, the scoring being 3 goals to 1 goal.

At the same venue, South Pres "A" proved too strong for their younger and less experienced opponents, Scoll Mhuire, by defeating them by 9 goals.

JUNIOR CHAMPIONSHIP FINAL REPLAY

The main attraction in Cork this week is the junior championship final replay at Church Road, between Old Aloysians Juniors and Mourne Abbey. Despite the unfavourable weather when these teams last met, a high standard of play was provided. If conditions are better next Sunday, this match should prove to be very exciting.

Old Aloysians—M. Moran, C. O'Connell, C. Joyce, M. Clancy, M. Fitzgerald, P. Joyce, E. Good, B. Hegarty, R. Manley, L. O'Grady, E. Wyley, Helen Horgan, C. O'Sullivan, D. Langford, Helen Sexton, P. Hegarty.

The Mourneabbey team is not to hand yet.

POSTPONEMENT

The match between St. Aloysius "A" and South Presentation "B" arranged for Saturday has been postponed because most of St. Aloysians' team will be lining out with Old Aloysians junior team on Sunday.

At Church Road St. Aloysius "B" meet St. Vincent's "B". Both teams are well down in the League, but St. Aloysius should emerge winners.

The match between Scoll Brid and Scoll Trachtala may prove to be exciting, for Scoll Brid are an enthusiastic team of young players, but their task looks a difficult one.

FIXTURES

Sunday at Church Road—Old Aloysians Juniors v. Mourneabbey at 3 p.m. Referee, N. Murphy.

SCHOOL CHAMPIONSHIP

On Saturday next at Church Road, St. Aloysius "A" and St. Vincent's "A" meet in the final of the Schools Championship. Despite examination fever in the schools both teams have got in a considerable amount of practice and if their display last week has again improved only a top class game can be expected. St. Vincent's "A" who have not appeared in this final for a few years are now determined that this year the trophy will not evade them. They are a well combined team of skilful young players who favour a fast type of game striking first time on the ball whether on the ground or in the air. Two of this team were members of the schools selection who were un-luckily defeated by Dublin schools in a challenge match at Dublin recently. The players are M. Ring and A. Hanahan who will prove a serious obstacle to their opponents. St. Aloysius "A" finalists for many years now start favourites but they will have to improve greatly on last week's form if they hope to win. Most of these players are members of Old Aloysians junior team, but M. Clancy and L. McCarthy are members of the senior team and Rena Manley is on the Cork senior selection. M. Moran in goal and Carmel O'Connell can always be depended on to give a good account of themselves. This match should produce much spectator interest especially from the respective schools competing. Whatever the outcome, a high-class standard of play is expected.

On this (Friday) evening the Cork schools team are travelling to Dublin. They will be playing a Dublin schools selection in Harold's Cross on Saturday. Led by their captain K. B. Murphy, this young, lively, courageous and skilful team have a good chance of overcoming their opponents. M. Moran in goal and M. Clancy on the left wing are a combination who can always be depended on to give a good account of themselves. S. O'Sullivan who was a member of the team who defeated Dublin two years ago will again figure in this game. A. Hennessy at mid-field is a stylish loose player and always succeeds in playing her shots into the square where N. Donnelly and R. Manley will avail of every scoring opportunity given them. Good luck to the Schools team who are all worthy wearers of their County Colours.

Schools selection—K. B. Murphy (School of Commerce), A. Honohan (St. Vincent's), M. Ring (St. Vincent's), A. Hennessy (Scoll Brid), P. Deane (North Pres.), M. Buckley (North Pres.), A.
